

IDEAS FOR CITIES

GET YOUR CITY INVOLVED IN #GIVINGTUESDAY!

There are many ideas and resources to get your city involved. Please check out the following resources and contact us to talk about how we can help you organize a local #GivingTuesday movement.

- Build a committee or coalition of nonprofits, small businesses, and other community leaders to organize a #GivingTuesday movement in your neighborhood.
- Baltimore's BMoreGivesMore took #GivingTuesday to a whole new level in 2013. Now, over 50 cities, states, and counties have organized local #GivingTuesday movements. Check out the movement around the country on our USA page or read the giving day e-book for tips and strategies to launch a giving day in your community.
- Start a hashtag – join #GivingTuesdayPHL (Philadelphia), #GivingTuesdayBucks (Bucks County, PA), #GivingTuesdayHI (Hawaii), #ILGiveBig, and others to build buzz locally.
- Get your mayor to proclaim November 29, 2015 #GivingTuesday. Use our Mayoral Proclamation Toolkit to get your local officials on board.
- Partner with small businesses to host local events that celebrate giving and local charities.
- Organize a community clean up day – get local volunteers together and work on community beautification projects in your neighborhood.
- Email us – we know there is a lot of planning and organizing that goes into building a movement. Let us know how we can help!
