How to Talk about GivingTuesday

- GivingTuesday is a global day of generosity that will take place on Dec 1, 2020.

- GivingTuesday is a global generosity movement, unleashing the power of people and organizations to transform their communities and the world.

- GivingTuesday strives to build a world in which the catalytic power of generosity is at the heart of the society we build together, unlocking dignity, opportunity, and equity around the globe.

- GivingTuesday was created in 2012 as a simple idea: a day that encourages people to do good. Over the past eight years, this idea has grown into a global movement that inspires hundreds of millions of people to give, collaborate, and celebrate generosity.

- People can show their generosity in a variety of ways during GivingTuesday—whether it’s helping a neighbor, advocating for an issue, sharing a skill, or giving to causes, every act of generosity counts.

- Generosity is what brings people of all races, faiths, and political views together across the globe. Generosity gives everyone the power to make a positive change in the lives of others and is a fundamental value anyone can act on.

- GivingTuesday emphasizes opportunities to give back to communities and causes in ways that allow people to embody social connection and kindness.

- We all have gifts to give, and with social media, online giving, delivery, mail, and phones, there are limitless ways to use your generosity to support others.
How to Participate

GivingTuesday is about giving of all types -- some may choose to give a financial contribution to their favorite cause or a fundraising drive, others will opt to reach out to neighbors, start an advocacy campaign, donate goods or extra supplies, or just share gratitude. If you can show generosity and share kindness, you have something to give! You can join in this global movement for unity and giving back in a variety of ways:

- Discover a local fundraiser, community drive or coordinated event to join others in your area or with your same interests in giving back -- they need your help.

- Give to your favorite cause or a fundraiser to help those in need.

- Share kindness with your neighbors--check on those who are alone and may need help with errands or just a friendly voice to talk to.

- Show gratitude to healthcare workers, service providers, and other essential workers who are making sure we still have the services we rely on, even at risk to their own health.

- Post a poster or sign of support for your community workers, neighbors and passers by to cheer them up and on.

- Volunteer virtually! Our friends at Points of Light have some ideas and resources.

- Share a quick tutorial that offers up a skill or lesson to help others discover something new or helps students add to their at-home learning.

- Encourage others to share kindness and be generous during this time.
